Floyds Knobs physician re-elected to leadership position in ISMA

INDIANAPOLIS – Deepak Azad, MD, MPH, an internal and occupational medicine practitioner in Floyds Knobs, has been re-elected by his colleagues to the position of Indiana State Medical Association (ISMA) delegate to the American Medical Association (AMA). He was sworn into office Sunday, Sept. 7, at the 168th annual convention of ISMA.

Dr. Azad is an ISMA past president, treasurer and assistant treasurer.

The Indiana State Medical Association is the largest physician organization in Indiana and is dedicated to promoting the well-being of doctors and their patients.
