Kokomo physician re-elected to ISMA leadership position

INDIANAPOLIS – William H. Mohr, MD, a family medicine practitioner in Kokomo, has been re-elected a delegate to the American Medical Association (AMA) by his colleagues in the Indiana State Medical Association (ISMA).

Dr. Mohr, a Kokomo resident, was re-elected during ISMA's annual convention, held Sept. 16-17 in Indianapolis. He has been an ISMA member since 1988 and practices with American Health Network Family Medicine and Specialty Care Services.

In addition to his work with the AMA delegation, Dr. Mohr was president of ISMA in 2004-2005. He has served as an AMA alternate delegate, chairman of the ISMA Board of Trustees and a member of the Medical Malpractice Task Force. Dr. Mohr has also served on the board of the Indiana Academy of Family Physicians and is a former chief of staff at St. Joseph Hospital.

The Indiana State Medical Association is the largest physician organization in Indiana and is dedicated to promoting the well-being of doctors and their patients.
