Muncie physicians elected, re-elected to ISMA leadership posts

INDIANAPOLIS – Two physicians practicing in Muncie have been chosen for leadership roles in the Indiana State Medical Association (ISMA) during the organization's 168th annual convention, Sept 16-17 in Indianapolis.

- Roberto Darroca, MD, of Community Physician Network OBGYN Care in Muncie, was elected speaker of the ISMA House of Delegates. Dr. Darroca, a Muncie resident, has served as ISMA treasurer, on the ISMA Board of Trustees and the Executive Committee and chaired the Opioid Prescribing Task Force.
- Andrew Trobridge, MD, of Fishers, was re-elected vice speaker of the House of Delegates. Board-certified in anesthesiology and pain management, Dr. Trobridge is with American Health Network on the staff of Spinal Therapeutics and Diagnostics in Muncie and Indianapolis. He also practices at Renovo Spine Clinic in Shelbyville.

The Indiana State Medical Association is the largest physician organization in Indiana and is dedicated to promoting the well-being of doctors and their patients.
