Indianapolis-area doctors re-elected ISMA vice speaker, treasurer

INDIANAPOLIS – Proceedings of the 168th annual convention of the Indiana State Medical Association (ISMA), held Sept. 16-17 in Indianapolis, included a swearing in ceremony for Indianapolis-area physicians elected to leadership roles by their colleagues.

The following physicians from the Indianapolis area took the oath to serve as leaders:

- Andrew Trobridge, MD, of Fishers, was re-elected vice speaker of the House of Delegates. Board-certified in anesthesiology and pain management, Dr. Trobridge is with American Health Network on the staff of Spinal Therapeutics and Diagnostics in Indianapolis and Muncie. He also practices at Renovo Spine Clinic in Shelbyville.
- Marc Duerden, MD, of Indianapolis, was re-elected treasurer; he previously served as assistant treasurer. Dr. Duerden is a physical medicine and rehabilitation specialist with National Government Services in Indianapolis.

The Indiana State Medical Association is the largest physician organization in Indiana and is dedicated to promoting the well-being of doctors and their patients.
