

NEW 5% Premium Credit

for Indiana State Medical Association Members

Members of the Indiana State Medical Association (ISMA) are eligible for a new membership benefit: a 5% premium credit on medical professional liability insurance from ProAssurance.

If you're not currently an ISMA member, now is a great time to join your colleagues in support of Indiana's patients and your medical community. ISMA's proven advocacy, business assistance, and CME programs are just a few of the membership benefits you'll enjoy.

When you combine your ISMA membership with medical professional liability coverage from ProAssurance, you receive more than savings. Benefits include:

- Claims-Made Plus[®] policy form, providing free tail coverage with any of several trigger events as described in the policy
- Coverage that meets the way you practice medicine today—including a limited cyber liability endorsement at no additional charge
- An unfettered defense of your good medicine
- The expertise of a company with more than 30 years of experience in Indiana
- Claims, risk management, and underwriting services provided by experts based in Indianapolis who understand our state's liability climate
- Transparency and fair treatment
- Comprehensive risk management programs and services designed to help you reduce uncertainty and increase the control you experience
- Steadfast coverage from a financially strong insurer—rated A (Excellent) by A.M. Best ProAssurance supports the work of the Indiana State Medical Association and is endorsed as the medical professional liability insurer of choice for ISMA members.

Find out today how you can benefit. For a free, no-obligation premium quotation, contact your local ProAssurance agent or call our Indianapolis office at 800.284.7424.

If you're already an ISMA member who is insured by ProAssurance, you will automatically receive a 5% premium credit upon policy renewal, starting with July 1, 2012, renewals.*
