125TH INDIANA GENERAL ASSEMBLY

2026 General Election Report & Biographical Profiles of New Legislators

Unofficial General Election Results

Updated November 11, 2026

Prepared by:

KRIEG DEVAULT

Governmental Affairs Practice Group

This report is provided for informational and government affairs purposes only. Information was compiled from publicly available sources. Election results are unofficial unless otherwise noted and remain subject to certification. Candidate biographies have been summarized for clarity and consistency. This report does not constitute legal advice, political endorsement, or a recommendation regarding any candidate, policy, or legislative action.

DRAFT

ELECTION RESULTS

Unofficial 2026 General Election Results | Updated November 10, 2026

This briefing identifies candidates expected to enter the Indiana General Assembly based on current unofficial returns. It includes open-seat successors and challengers who defeated or are leading incumbents. Races labeled "uncalled" should be monitored until official certification.

Chart 1. Indiana Senate

District	New legislator	Party	Seat status
SD 1	Scott Houldieson	D	Flip R to D
SD 6	James Starkey	R	Beat incumbent in primary, previously R
SD 11	Gabrianna Gratzol	D	Flip R to D
SD 15	Julie McGill	D	Flip R to D
SD 17	Chris Parker	R	Beat incumbent in primary, previously R
SD 19	Blake Fiechter	R	Beat incumbent in primary, previously R
SD 21	Tracey Powell	R	Beat incumbent in primary, previously R
SD 22	Natasha Baker	D	Flip R to D
SD 29	Kristina Moorhead	D	Open, previously D
SD 31	Kerry Forestal	D	Flip R to D
SD 39	Jeff Ellington	R	Open, previously R
SD 41	Michelle Davis	R	Beat incumbent in primary, previously R
SD 46	Allissa Impink	D	Open, previously D

Senate total: 13 likely new members, including seven Democrats and six Republicans.

DRAFT

Chart 2. Indiana House of Representatives

District	New legislator	Party	Seat status
HD 4	Ryan Kominakis	D	Flip R to D
HD 5	Alex Wait	D	Flip R to D
HD 19	Nick Neal	D	Flip R to D
HD 24	Racheal Bleicher	D	Flip R to D
HD 25	Tiffany Stoner	D	Flip R to D
HD 30	Paula Davis	R	Open, previously R
HD 34	Sara Gullion	D	Open, previously D
HD 36	Kimberly Townsend	D	Flip R to D
HD 37	Lauren Cole	D	Flip R to D
HD 39	Lindsay Gramlich	D	Flip R to D
HD 40	William Colteryahn	D	Flip R to D
HD 45	Kellie Streeter	R	Open, previously R
HD 56	Randy Retter	R	Open, previously R
HD 57	Wes Bennett	R	Open, previously R
HD 58	John Reed	R	Open, previously R
HD 62	Amy Huffman Oliver	D	Flip R to D
HD 63	Amy Kippenbrock	R	Open, previously R
HD 70	Scott Fluhr	R	Open, previously R
HD 72	Michele Henry	D	Flip R to D
HD 84	Misti Meehan	D	Flip R to D
HD 88	Stephanie Jo Yocum	D	Flip R to D
HD 90	David Boyd	D	Flip R to D
HD 91	Jarren Hurt	D	Flip R to D
HD 93	Eva Rosberg	D	Flip R to D

House total: 24 likely new members, including seventeen Democrats and seven Republicans.

Chart 3. Combined Statehouse Picture

Chamber	Likely new members	Democrats	Republicans	Potential R-to-D flips
Senate	13	7	6	5
House	24	17	7	16
Combined	37	24	13	21 possible flips

DRAFT

BIOGRAPHICAL PROFILES OF THE NEW SENATORS OF THE 125TH INDIANA GENERAL ASSEMBLY

DRAFT

Artificial Intelligence (AI) was used in compiling and condensing of some of this content.*

Scott Houldieson (D) | SD 1

PUBLIC PHOTO 	Scott Houldieson is a lifelong resident of Indiana's Calumet Region and a longtime union leader with more than 36 years of experience advocating for workers. A member of both UFCW Local 881 and later UAW Local 551, he has held multiple union leadership roles and helped lead major reform efforts within the UAW, including co-founding Unite All Workers for Democracy (UAWD). In addition to his labor advocacy, Houldieson has been active in grassroots political organizing, racial justice and police reform initiatives, and local Democratic politics throughout Northwest Indiana. He lives in Highland with his wife, Vicky, and is the father of six children and grandfather of thirteen. Photo and background source: Scott Houldieson for State Senate

James "Jay" Starkey (R) | SD 6

PUBLIC PHOTO 	Jay Starkey is a Northwest Indiana contractor, small business owner, and community leader who has built a career in construction and project management while remaining active in local civic and church service. A graduate of Hebron High School and former student at Purdue North Central, Starkey has served as a church deacon, high school track and field coach, and precinct committeeman. Running as a Republican for Indiana Senate District 6, he emphasizes property tax relief, government accountability, affordable utilities, election integrity, parental involvement in education, protection of unborn life, and Second Amendment rights, presenting himself as a conservative advocate focused on representing taxpayers and local families. Photo: Ballotpedia - James Starkey Background source: Jay Starkey for State Senate

DRAFT

Gabrianna Gratzol (D) | SD 11

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Gabrianna Gratzol is a manufacturing worker, former behavioral health professional, and community volunteer running for Indiana State Senate District 11. Her biography highlights her experience working with youth facing mental health challenges and children with autism, as well as personal experiences navigating employment and healthcare systems during a high-risk pregnancy. She describes these experiences as motivating her involvement in community advocacy, nonprofit work, and local Democratic Party activities, and as the basis for her interest in public service and policy reform. Photo Source: Gabrianna Gratzol Ballotpedia Background Source: Gratzol for Senate District 11 - About Gabrianna

Julie McGill (D) | SD 15

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Julie McGill is a Fort Wayne business owner, caregiver, and mother of three whose campaign is rooted in her personal experiences navigating healthcare and disability services for her son with profound disabilities. After earning degrees from Purdue Fort Wayne and Ball State University and working at Lincoln Financial Group, she became an advocate for families facing challenges with Medicaid and caregiving support. McGill founded Family Solutions Home Care, served on the leadership team of Indiana Families United for Care, and helped advance statewide advocacy efforts that earned recognition from The Arc of Indiana. She emphasizes practical problem-solving, support for working families and small businesses, fiscal responsibility, and improving access to essential services, particularly for Hoosiers navigating healthcare and affordability challenges. Photo Source: McGill for Indiana Background Source: McGill for Indiana - Meet Julie

DRAFT

Chris Parker (R) | SD 17

PUBLIC PHOTO

Chris Parker is a realtor, small business owner, former pastor, and candidate for Indiana State Senate District 17. A resident of Huntington County since attending Huntington University, Parker has spent nearly two decades working in real estate, serving in professional and community leadership roles, and recently opened the Coffee Bean Counter coffee shop. His biography emphasizes his Christian faith, business experience, support for local economic development, local decision-making, and policies aimed at strengthening families, small businesses, and rural communities in northeastern Indiana.

Photo and background source: Chris Parker for State Senate

Blake Fiechter (R) | SD 19

PUBLIC PHOTO

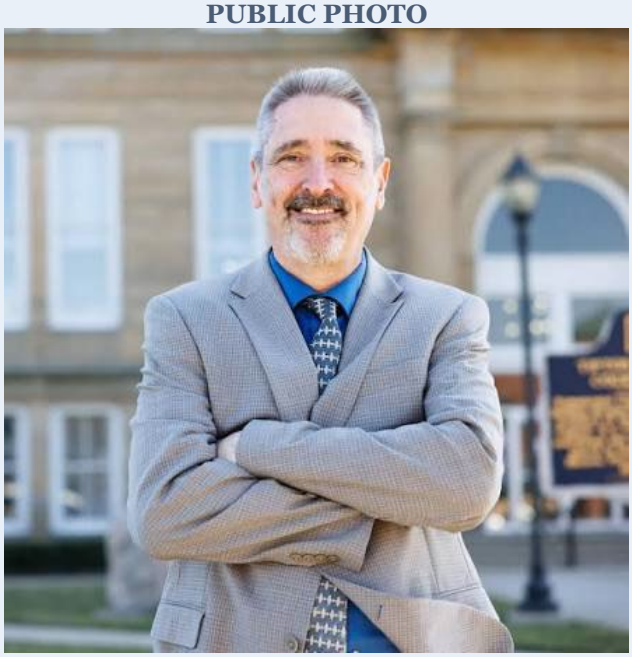

Blake Fiechter is a small business owner, real estate professional, and member of the Bluffton City Council seeking election to the Indiana State Senate. A third-generation resident of Bluffton, he highlights his local roots, experience in municipal government and economic development, and commitment to representing northeastern Indiana. His biography emphasizes his role as a husband and father, involvement in his community, and focus on issues such as affordability, property taxes, rural communities, and small-town values.

Photo Source: Ballotpedia - Blake Fiechter
Background source: Blake Fiechter for State Senate

DRAFT

Tracey Powell (R) | SD 21

PUBLIC PHOTO

Tracey Powell is a chiropractor, farmer, small business owner, and Tipton County Commissioner seeking election to Indiana State Senate District 21. A lifelong Hoosier, Powell highlights his experience in county and regional government leadership, including service with the Indiana County Commissioners Association and the North Central Indiana Regional Planning Council. His biography emphasizes his work on economic development and infrastructure, as well as his focus on supporting small businesses, education, affordable health care, and rural communities.

Photo Source: Facebook - Tracey Powell for Indiana
Background source: Tracey Powell for State Senate

Natasha Baker (D) | SD 22

PUBLIC PHOTO

Natasha Baker is a public-school Family and Consumer Sciences teacher, Harrison High School and Purdue University graduate, and mother of two who is running for Indiana Senate District 22. A resident of Tippecanoe County and the wife of a volunteer firefighter, Baker emphasizes her firsthand experience with the challenges facing Indiana families. Her biography highlights her commitment to public education, affordable living, access to healthy food, safe communities, and policies that support children and families across Indiana.

Photo source: Indiana Capital Chronicle - Senate District 22 Democrat
Background Source: Natasha Baker for District 22

DRAFT

Kristina Moorhead (D) | SD 29

PUBLIC PHOTO

Kristina Moorhead is a public policy professional and former Indiana Office of Medicaid Policy and Planning Deputy Director running for Indiana State Senate District 29. A lifelong Hoosier, Ball State graduate, and holder of a Master of Public Affairs from Indiana University-Indianapolis, she has spent more than 20 years working in health policy across government, nonprofit, and private-sector roles. Her biography highlights her experience in public service, healthcare policy, and community involvement as a wife and mother, emphasizing a focus on affordability, education, healthcare, and economic opportunity for Indiana families.

Photo Source: Ballotpedia - Kristina Moorhead
Background source: Kristina Moorhead for State Senate - About

Kerry Forestal (D) | SD 31

PUBLIC PHOTO

Kerry Forestal is a longtime law enforcement official and public servant who, until November 2026, served as Marion County Sheriff and previously as U.S. Marshal for the Southern District of Indiana. His biography emphasizes his experience in public safety, leadership, and government service, highlighting a career focused on accountability, community trust, and protecting families. As a candidate for the Indiana State Senate, Forestal presents his background in law enforcement and public service as the foundation for his work on behalf of Hoosier communities.

Photo Source: Official Page - Marion County Sheriff's Office
Background source: Kerry Forestal for State Senate - Meet Kerry

DRAFT

Jeff Ellington (R) | SD 39

PUBLIC PHOTO 	Jeff Ellington is a businessman, retired firefighter, horse farmer, and former member of the Indiana House of Representatives who was elected to represent Indiana State Senate District 39 in 2026. A resident of Bloomfield, husband, father, and grandfather, Ellington owns J.R. Ellington Tree Experts and Ellington Stables and serves as Greene County Republican chairman. His biography emphasizes his background in public service, small business ownership, agriculture, and advocacy for conservative policies and Indiana taxpayers. Photo and background source: Jeff Ellington for Indiana State Senate Dist. 39

Michelle Davis (R) | SD 41

PUBLIC PHOTO 	Michelle Davis is a lifelong Johnson County resident, educator, and former Division I athlete who formerly served in the Indiana House of Representatives and will now serve Senate District 41. Her career has focused on education and workforce development, and she has championed conservative policies including school choice, parental rights, career training, and protections for female athletes. Photo Source: Official Page - Indiana General Assembly Background Source: Michelle Davis for State Senate

DRAFT

Allissa Impink (D) | SD 46

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Former Indianapolis Public Schools teacher, child-welfare professional, nonprofit leader, and community advocate. Impink serves as director of statewide community engagement for the Women's Foundation of Indiana and was elected to the Indianapolis Public Schools board in 2024. Her stated priorities include public-school funding, affordable housing and health care, childcare access, postpartum Medicaid coverage, and a moratorium on new data centers. Photo and background source: Allissa Impink for Indiana Senate Dist. 46 - Meet Allissa

DRAFT

BIOGRAPHICAL PROFILES OF THE NEW REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 125TH INDIANA GENERAL ASSEMBLY

DRAFT

Artificial Intelligence (AI) was used in compiling and condensing of some of this content.*

Ryan Kominakis (D) | HD 4

PUBLIC PHOTO

Ryan Kominakis is a U.S. Marine Corps veteran, steelworker, union representative, and lifelong Hoosier running for State Representative in District 4. Raised in Union Township and now living in Valparaiso with his wife and two children, Kominakis served four military deployments, including one in Afghanistan, before beginning a career at U.S. Steel Gary Works. His biography highlights more than a decade of experience in the steel industry, labor advocacy, veteran service through VFW Post 988, and community involvement, emphasizing his focus on issues affecting working families, veterans, and local communities.

Photo and background source: Ryan Kominakis for State Representative

Alex Wait (D) | HD 5

PUBLIC PHOTO

Alex Wait is a resident of Granger, Indiana, a graduate of Xavier University and King's College London, and a professional scriptwriter. His biography highlights his upbringing in the Michiana area, his education in the Penn-Harris-Madison school system, and his decision to return to Granger to raise a family. As a candidate for Indiana House District 5, Wait emphasizes issues affecting working families, including education funding, childcare costs, and affordability, drawing on his experiences as a new parent and longtime community resident.

Photo and background source: Alex Wait for Indiana State House

DRAFT

Nick Neal (D) | HD 19

PUBLIC PHOTO

Nick Neal is a Northwest Indiana community leader, nonprofit professional, and candidate for Indiana House District 19. An Andrean High School graduate with degrees from Indiana University Northwest, Neal began his career in law enforcement before moving into nonprofit leadership, where he has spent nearly 20 years working with families, schools, churches, and community organizations across Lake County and Porter County. His biography highlights his experience securing funding for community programs, supporting families and children, and addressing issues such as child abuse prevention, domestic violence, and educational support, while emphasizing collaboration, public service, and advocacy for local communities.

Photo and background source: Nick Neal for State Representative - Meet Nick

Racheal Bleicher (D) | HD 24

PUBLIC PHOTO

Racheal is a corporate technology professional, community leader, wife, and mother running for office in Indiana House District 24. Her biography highlights her experience managing teams in the technology sector, as well as personal experiences as the daughter of two Air Force veterans, a school shooting survivor, and a parent navigating childcare, healthcare, and cost-of-living challenges. She emphasizes a data-driven and service-oriented approach to leadership, with a focus on education, infrastructure, economic development, workforce growth, and policies that support Indiana families.

Photo and background source: Racheal for Indiana - Meet Racheal

DRAFT

Tiffany Stoner (D) | HD 25

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Tiffany Stoner is a small business owner, former Accenture network architect and senior program manager, community volunteer, and candidate for the Indiana House of Representatives. An Indiana resident for more than 25 years and a graduate of Ball State University, Stoner co-founded the award-winning Nathaniel Edmunds Photography business and has been active in numerous charitable and civic organizations. Her biography highlights her professional experience in technology and project management, military family background, fundraising and nonprofit leadership, and long-standing involvement in community service throughout central Indiana. Photo and background source: Tiffany Stone for Indiana House District 25

Paula Davis (R) | HD 30

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Paula Davis is a wife, mother, and community advocate who has worked with local and state leaders to promote the voices of parents, taxpayers, and Indiana families. Guided by her faith and commitment to family, she supports pro-life policies, Second Amendment rights, legal immigration, government accountability, and commonsense public policy, and has been recognized with the Abigail Adams Founder Award for her leadership and community service. Photo Source: Official Page - Indiana General Assembly Background source: Facebook - Paula Davis for Indiana House

DRAFT

Sara Gullion (D) | HD 34

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Sara Gullion was a member of the Muncie City Council and candidate for Indiana House District 34. Her biography highlights her experience in local government and emphasizes a focus on accountability, transparency, and constituent service. Gullion identifies housing affordability, fair wages, accessible healthcare, and strong public schools as key priorities, drawing on her work in municipal government and her perspective on how state-level decisions affect local communities. Photo Source: Ballotpedia - Sara Gullion Background Source: Sara Gullion for State Representative - About

Kimberly Townsend (D) | HD 36

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Kim Townsend is a longtime public servant and the CEO of the Anderson Housing Authority who is running for Indiana House District 36. A resident of Anderson and Madison County, Townsend highlights more than 31 years of public service, including her leadership of the housing authority since 2018, where she oversaw organizational improvements and secured millions of dollars in grant funding. Her biography emphasizes her experience in community leadership, affordable housing, healthcare access, economic development, education, and public service, drawing on both her professional background and personal experience as a breast cancer survivor. Photo and background source: Kim Townsend for State Representative

DRAFT

Lauren Cole (D) | HD 37

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Lauren Cole is a scientist, healthcare researcher, and newly elected representative for Indiana House District 37. A graduate of Earlham College with a background in biochemistry, Cole has worked in clinical cancer trials and healthcare research, including COVID-19 testing initiatives. Originally from New Hampshire, she now lives in Fishers and has been active in community and public service efforts. Her biography emphasizes her experiences in healthcare, advocacy, and evidence-based problem-solving, with a focus on issues such as affordable healthcare, public education, community safety, and economic opportunity for Hoosiers. Photo and Background Source: Lauren Cole for State Representative

Lindsay Gramlich (D) | HD 39

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Carmel nonprofit executive and president and CEO of Girls Inc. of Greater Indianapolis. She earned degrees from DePauw University and Indiana University and has more than 16 years of Central Indiana nonprofit and philanthropic experience. Photo and background source: Lindsay Gramlich for State Rep - About

DRAFT

William Colteryahn (D) | HD 40

PUBLIC PHOTO 	Avon resident and career public servant with more than 20 years in social services. Colteryahn has served as a program director at the Indiana Family and Social Services Administration, with work involving seniors, people with disabilities, and working families. He highlighted property tax and utility-cost relief, corporate tax-abatement reform, and stronger oversight of large technology developments during the campaign. Photo and background source: Will Colteryahn for Indiana - About

Kellie Streeter (R) | HD 45

PUBLIC PHOTO 	Kellie Streeter is a local government leader, public health administrator, and candidate for Indiana House District 45. She serves as Administrator of the Daviess County Health Department and has been a Knox County Commissioner since 2016, holding leadership roles with the Indiana County Commissioners Association. Her biography highlights her work on public health, emergency medical services, economic development, and rural community issues, as well as her involvement in state and local boards. A resident of Freelandville, Streeter emphasizes her experience advocating for rural Indiana, infrastructure investment, healthcare access, and local decision-making. Photo and background source: Kellie Streeter for State Representative

DRAFT

Randy Retter (R) | HD 56

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Randy Retter is a longtime law enforcement officer and former two-term Wayne County Sheriff running to represent Indiana House District 56. Raised on a multigenerational family farm in Wayne County, Retter emphasizes a background rooted in agriculture, community involvement, and public service. A graduate of the Indiana Law Enforcement Academy and Ball State University, he spent more than 35 years in law enforcement and has been active in local organizations, including the Boys & Girls Club and Community Bible Church. His biography highlights his commitment to public safety, community leadership, and representing the interests of residents in eastern Indiana. Photo and background source: Randy Retter for State Representative - Bio

Wes Bennett (R) | HD 57

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Wes Bennett is a longtime public servant and business professional with nearly 20 years of government experience and 25 years in the private sector, specializing in municipal finance, property tax administration, banking, insurance, and public policy. He served six years as head of Indiana's Department of Local Government Finance and twelve years as Clerk-Treasurer of Plainfield, overseeing fiscal operations and taxpayer accountability. A lifelong Hoosier, Bennett is active in numerous community organizations and brings a record of fiscal stewardship, government transparency, and data-driven decision-making to his campaign. He and his wife, Suzy, have been married for 40 years and have two sons and two grandsons. Photo source: Wes Benntt - Ballotpedia Background Source: Wes Bennet for District 57 - About Wes

DRAFT

John Reed (R) | HD 58

PUBLIC PHOTO
	John Reed is a minister, college administrator, and longtime resident of Greenwood who has spent more than a decade in leadership roles at Indiana Baptist College and Seminary, including serving as Dean of Students. Raised in rural Indiana, Reed credits his upbringing with instilling a strong work ethic and appreciation for agricultural communities. He holds bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees from Indiana Baptist College, is active in ministry throughout Indiana, and has been involved in civic and political engagement for many years. Reed and his wife, Lauren, a music teacher, are raising a large family and emphasize faith, education, and traditional values as central to their commitment to serving Hoosiers. Photo Source: Official Page - Indiana General Assembly Background source: John Reed for Indiana - About

Amy Huffman Oliver (D) | HD 62

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Attorney, mediator, former domestic-violence prosecutor, former deputy attorney general, former public-school teacher, and elected Brown County Schools board member. She is a Smith College and Indiana University School of Law graduate. Photo and background source: Amy Huffman Oliver for State Representative - About Amy

DRAFT

Amy Kippenbrock (R) | HD 63

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Amy Kippenbrock is a lifelong Hoosier, former Dubois County Clerk, and candidate for Indiana House District 63. Raised in Jasper and born in Martin County, she highlights her background in local government, where she worked to modernize county operations, implement vote centers, and oversee election administration. Kippenbrock's biography emphasizes her commitment to public service, support for veterans and military families, experience connected to a family-owned small business, and focus on representing the interests of families, businesses, and communities in southwest Indiana. Photo and background source: Amy Kippenbrock for State Representative

Scott Fluhr (R) | HD 70

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Scott Fluhr is a lifelong Harrison County resident, conservative Republican, and community leader from Corydon. He is the son of retired educators, he earned a business degree from Indiana University Bloomington and works as a human resources analyst. For more than 18 years, he has served as chairman of the Harrison County Republican Party, helping strengthen local Republican organization and electoral success. Active in numerous community organizations, including the Harrison County Popcorn Festival, Harrison County Parks & Recreation Board, and Harrison County Tourism Board, Fluhr is running for Indiana House District 70 on a platform centered on conservative values, fiscal responsibility, and strong representation for Southern Indiana families. Photo and background source: Scott Fluhr for State Representative

DRAFT

Michele Henry (D) | HD 72

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Michele Henry is a civil rights attorney and candidate for Indiana House District 72 who has lived and raised her family in Georgetown, Indiana. Practicing law since 2002, Henry focuses on representing victims of discrimination and labor unions, and she has been recognized by Best Lawyers and Super Lawyers for her work in employment law. Her biography also highlights her community involvement through organizations such as the Waterfront Botanical Gardens, the Women Lawyers Association, and Access Justice, as well as her role as a parent, volunteer, and longtime resident of southern Indiana. Photo Source: Louisville Public Media - Michele Henry Background source: Michele Henry for State Representative

Misti Meehan (D) | HD 84

PUBLIC PHOTO
	Misti Meehan is a lifelong Hoosier, Army National Guard veteran, small business owner, and experienced election administrator who has spent more than a decade working with the Allen County Election Board to help ensure fair and accurate elections. Raised and educated in the Fort Wayne area, she attended St. Peter's Lutheran School, Jefferson Middle School, Northrop High School, and IPFW. Meehan emphasizes practical, bipartisan problem-solving and a record of working with people across political lines to deliver results. As a candidate for Indiana House District 84, she is focused on lowering costs for working families, strengthening local communities, and bringing collaborative leadership to the Statehouse. Photo: Hoosier Women Forward Bio background source: Meehan for District 84 - About

DRAFT

Stephanie Jo Yocum (D) | HD 88

PUBLIC PHOTO 	Nonprofit executive with more than 20 years in education and health-related organizations. A Hanover College graduate and former AmeriCorps member, she chairs Serve Indiana, the state commission on service and volunteerism. Photo and background source: Stephanie Jo Yocum for District 88 - About

David Boyd (D) | HD 90

PUBLIC PHOTO 	David Boyd is a father, insurance professional, and resident of Franklin Township in southeast Indianapolis with a background in public service, disaster response, and community outreach. A licensed catastrophe insurance adjuster, Boyd helps individuals recover from hurricanes, floods, wildfires, and other major losses. His professional experience includes service with the United States Department of Homeland Security (DHS), the U.S. Census Bureau, and the Transportation Security Administration (TSA). Boyd also co-founded a nonprofit focused on mentoring and empowering at-risk youth and later studied political science at Indiana University Indianapolis. He is married to Constance, has two daughters, and remains active in his local church and community advocacy efforts. Photo and background source: Boyd for Indiana

DRAFT

Jarren Hurt (D) | HD 91

PUBLIC PHOTO

Jarren Hurt is a Navy submarine veteran, husband, and father of three, born and raised in Indiana. An Eagle Scout and Indiana University graduate, Jarren has deep roots in this community and a lifelong commitment to service.

After his service, Jarren built a career as a real estate agent and small business owner, running a utility fiber optic installation company.

Photo Source: Ballotpedia - Jarren Hurt
Background Source: Jarren Hurt for House District 91

Eva Rosberg (D) | HD 93

PUBLIC PHOTO

Fourth-generation Hoosier and lifelong Indianapolis south-side resident. Rosberg spent 25 years as a hairstylist and small-business owner before entering public service in 2020 as executive assistant to the Marion County assessor. Her stated priorities include public-school funding, affordability, community-centered representation, and reviewing the state's school-voucher policies.

Photo and background source: UIndy Bio

DRAFT

Sources and Methodology

- MultiState Elections, Indiana 2026 Election Results (results as of November 4, 2026): https://www.multistate.us/elections/results/indiana-2026
- Decision Desk HQ, Indiana 2026 Election Results (as of November 9, 2026): https://votes.decisiondeskhq.com/elections/2026-11-03/indiana
- Mirror Indy, Indianapolis Statehouse district results: https://mirrorindy.org/indiana-elections-2026-state-senators-represenatives-indianapolis-results/
- Individual campaign, Ballotpedia, BallotReady, Indiana Capital Chronicle, and local-news biography pages linked in each profile.
- WFYI 2026 voter guides for Senate Districts 21 and 46 and House Districts 24, 40, 57, and 90.
- Ballotpedia candidate biographies for Racheal Bleicher, Kimberly Townsend, Amy Kippenbrock, Scott Fluhr, David Boyd, and Jarren Hurt.
- Indiana Capital Chronicle voter guide for Senate District 46; Mirror Indy candidate profile for David Lawrence Boyd; University of Indianapolis Reflector profile of Eva Rosberg.

Caution: Election results are unofficial until certified. Candidate campaign biographies are self-reported and should be treated as background summaries, not independent verification of every personal or professional claim.

DRAFT