

THE CARING WORK OF ORGAN PROCUREMENT ORGANIZATIONS

ORGAN PROCUREMENT ORGANIZATIONS (OPOs)

serve as a compassionate and vital link between donors and patients waiting for life-saving organ transplants.

PUBLIC EDUCATION

Helping people to make informed decisions about donation.

PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

Develop hospital donation policies/procedures and educate the healthcare professionals about the donation process.

RESEARCH

Help advance the science of donation and transplantation, with the goal to transplant more patients in need.

DONOR FAMILY SUPPORT

Provide compassionate care and grief support to families before, during, and after donation.

CLINICAL SUPPORT

Clinical management of organ donors and assessment of medical suitability.

