

I'm honored to run for Vice Speaker of the Indiana State Medical Association. If elected, I will work to ensure our annual House of Delegates meeting is conducted fairly and efficiently while maintaining respect and order. My goals are to lead productive discussion that values our members' time, promote respectful dialogue, and help us function as a more effective organization. I am also committed to being a strong advocate for our shared interests and serving as a responsible and thoughtful representative of the ISMA.